Anyone who has given money for Easter Lilies is welcome to take them home today.

Right after the morning service we will meet out back for our annual Easter Egg Hunt.

Don’t miss Dave Harney in revival with us starting next Sunday morning at 11 am singing & preaching.

Beginning in May, you may bring in flowers in memory or in honor of our mothers. We will plant them in our Mothers Day garden in front of the church sign.

If you would like to bring in a picture of your Mother the week of Mothers Day we will set them up for all to view.

Our special speaker for the Mother/Daughter Banquet is Mrs. Hutchinson of the singing Hutchinson Family.

On Saturday, June 16th, all men will meet here for a Men’s Breakfast, then we will show the film “Courageous” and have a time of Q & A with Robbie Morrison.

Resurrection! It happens in the dark with no witnesses just the Father bending Over his Son and breathing the Spirit back into his flesh and everything is shattered. The Sabbath is over. It is the first day of the week, the eighth day of the week. It is the new creation, and it is just dawning . . . Resurrection sends Jesus back into the world, and it sends us back into the world, unafraid now raised up in glory, still seeking the crucified One who is now raised and hidden in our midst.
