Message - From Palms To Paradise – Final Words - Part 1

Invitation Song #177 "I Surrender All"

Because Nazareth means "lily", the new Church of the Annunciation in Nazareth has a steeple that resembles a lily. But it is an upside-down lily; it's open mouth is pointing downward to suggest God's pouring out of himself to man. That is exactly what happens when Christ came.

Because of sickness I have missed several days of preaching. Our series "Palms to Paradise" is behind. Today I will be preaching "The Final Words of Jesus-Part 1, and tonight, Part 2. Wednesday night the message "The Torn Curtain" and on Resurrection Sunday, "A Rolling Stone". Please be here for all these exciting messages to get us ready for a great Sunday service next week.

We are taking donations for Easter eggs & candy. Easter is coming fast!

Greg & Sandy Waggoner will be with us for revival on April 19th – 22nd. Great western range music & preaching! Don't miss the Waggoners!

Friday night, May 8th, we will have our annual Mother/Daughter Banquet. A very special night to celebrate our Mothers & what they mean to us.

Sunday night, March 29th we will have a business meeting. Please plan on being here.
